THREE 2'S SOUNDED.

All the Firemen Called Out Sunday Morning.

SWIFT CO'S SMOKE HOUSE ON FIRE.

The Building, Just Completed, Was Being Tested by Company's Head Smoker—Started Too Hot a Fire—Damage Will Not Exceed $700.

Shortly after 11 o'clock, Sunday morning, Wallace Wisner, a member of Eagle Hose Company, and a painter employed on the improvements being made at the Swift refrigerator in this city, heard wood cracking as if burning. The other employees were notified, but as it was known that head smoker Elcholtz, of New York, was testing the new smoke houses, nothing was at first thought of it.

Wisner finally went out in front and discovered flames at the top of the building. He ran to Eagle's house and while the patrol was hurrying to the scene someone else sent in an alarm from box 26.

When Chief Higham arrived great clouds of black smoke were pouring out of the top of the building and he promptly sent in the "three two's," calling out the entire department, for it looked serious for the lumber yard adjoining. Eagles and Phoenix took streams in the building, and under the direction of Manager Gibbs, who had been summoned from the Baptist Church, Chief Higham placed the streams so that but little damage was done by water, and the fire was confined to the new smoking chambers.

Holes were cut in the roof by Exelors and the fire was soon extinguished with a loss of about $700, fully covered by insurance. The insurance is held by Boston offices.

So nicely were the fire and water handled that only the rafters and the two smoke chambers were injured at all. The meat and other supplies were not tainted by smoke, nor did water get in the refrigerator.

The fire originated from the smoke test. Mr. Elcholtz was using carpenter's chips for the purpose and the chambers became hotter than he thought. The first grate over the fire is iron and the two above that are of wood. It was the wooden grates which caught fire. In smoking meats hickory is used, and a draught carries the smoke up through the chambers, which extend from cellar to roof.

The fire is a source of great annoyance to Mr. Gibbs, for while it is no way interfering with the business of the company it puts back the company's men, who have been straining every nerve to get the job completed.

HAIGHT VS. HAIGHT.

A Divorce Case in Which There Are Some Strange Features.

A suit for separation brought by Mary L. Haight against her husband, Henry James Haight, was before Judge Hirschberg at Newburgh, Saturday. The defendant is a millionaire, and the family have a winter home in New York, a summer home at Newport and a country home at Goshen. The case came up on an application for alimony and counsel fees pending trial. The defendant got an adjournment to July 1.

The peculiar part of the case is that both parties to the suit are deaf mutes. Mr. Haight is the owner of Haight's Park in Goshen, and he erected a mansion on his place in that village, some years ago, at a cost of $60,000. The couple have three children, Mrs. Charles H. Haight and Miss Eleanor Haight, of New York city, and a son who lives in the northern part of the State. Mrs. Haight resides at present in a flat in New York with her two daughters. Mr. Haight is supposed to be residing in New Jersey, but in what part of the State neither his wife nor her attorney seems to know.

The suit for separation was brought on the ground of desertion and non-support.

A New Windsor Divorce Suit.

Sude E. Frost's action for divorce from her husband, Lewis W. Frost, the Erie station agent at New Windsor, was before Judge Hirschberg, Saturday. She charges desertion, but Mr. Frost presented proof that he was the deserted one. The judge fixed July 1st as the time of trial and gave Mrs. Frost $35 for counsel fees and cut the $10 a week her husband has been paying her to $5.

Wedded by Means of an Advertisement.

Miss Almira Smith, of Melville, Greene county, and George H. Fuller, a wealthy farmer, of Mapleville, R. I., were married at Saugerties, on Thursday. The couple became acquainted through an advertisement, courted by correspondence, and had never met each other until they were about to be wed. The groom is sixty-five years of age, the bride fifty-five.

A Jilted Youth's Suicide.

Andrew M. Woodford, eighteen years old, while being cured on George Pepper's farm at Reynoldsville, Dutchess county, Saturday, brooded over Emma Ferguson's refusal to "keep company with him" and scribbled two notes, one to her and one to the finder of his body and then put three bullets into his body. He was dead when found.

A Loss to the Middletown Schools.

The pupils in Miss Katharine Campbell's room at the Liberty school are deeply grieved at her severing her connection with the Middletown schools. She has done good and efficient work, and has the gift that all good teachers must have of winning the love and arousing the ambition of her pupils.

Burglars in an Erie Station.

A VISIT TO HIGH POINT.

A Party of Middletowners Spent a Pleasant Sunday at This Popular Resort.

A party of ten residents, ladies and gentlemen, drove, yesterday, from here to High Point, returning in the late evening after a most enjoyable day's outing. They went by the way of Mount Hope and Finchville, taking the mountain road at the latter place, some ten miles, to the turn and the mountain journey was made by way of Greenville, a straight drive to Middletown until the turn of the road is met a short distance this side of Union Cemetery. This is the shortest route between here and High Point, but the party is quite unanimous in saying, to-day, that the drive over the mountain road from Finchville is the thing to do for one-half of the way.

Upon arrival at the hotel the party found they were ahead of the season, which awaits the first of July, but miss host St. John was there and he found ways and means for a sumptuous dinner for them, to their great gratification, and for which they tender him a vote of thanks.

The climb up High Point was indulged in after dining; no small feat the ladies and gentlemen of the party are telling their friends for persons just from table and who are altogether out of practice in that sort of thing. High Point, be it remembered, rears the loftiest peak of all the cloudward aspiring eminences in the State of New Jersey, being 1,960 feet above sea level, and two of the ladies and two of the gentlemen who did the climbing, each strain steelcords at the two-hundred pound notch, the feat was for them really heroic.

But what did it matter to the climbers if they did reach the crest of the Point with panting lungs and trembling limbs, when spread before delighted vision was such wealth of charms of field, woodland, rivers, streams, lakes and mountains reaching far, far away into distances way beyond the boundary lines of three States of the Union.

THE CONVALESCENT HOME.

Opened Saturday With Fifteen Children from the New York Infirmary.

Fifteen children arrived at the Middletown-Goshen Convalescent Home, Saturday, under the auspices of the Tribune-Fresh Air Fund. They are cared for at the Southwell farm near Goshen under the direction of Dr. Norton, D. D. She is a well known medical missionary in New York city.

The children that came out Saturday were from the New York Infirmary, near East 15th street, and their ages range from four to twelve years. One little tot of four came out all alone except for a brother of about seven to look after her.

The home is open to visitors every day except Sunday from two to five p. m. Donations of children's clothing and money will be appreciated and can be left with General Secretary A. P. L. Rikens at the Y. M. C. A. rooms or with R. H. Wood, Goshen, or any member of the board of managers.

BOYS' COSTLY MISCHIEF.

Started a Locomotive Which Did Much Damage in Port Jervis.

Two mischievous boys entered the cab of yard engine 1178, left standing about 300 feet from the main entrance of the Erie car shops at Port Jervis, early Saturday evening, and opened the steam valves of the locomotive. The engine started forward and smashed in the doors of the car shop, wrecked two coupled cars therein undergoing repairs and then made kindling wood of the doors at the other end of the building, derailing other cars standing on a switch outside of the western end of the building and then it stopped of its own accord. When the engine started the boys jumped and ran away.

PAID TWO REWARDS.

A Morris-town Man Pays Liberally for the Recovery of His Stolen Rig.

Theodore Syner, of Morris-town, N. J., whose stolen horse and wagon were recently recovered at Port Jervis, paid the $20 reward that he had offered to John Kern, a milkman, who notified Chief of Police Westbrook that he had seen the stolen rig while coming down the mountain. Gregg Porter, who captured the horse thief and recovered the rig, claimed that he ought to have had the reward and sued Mr. Syner for the $20. Mr. Syner settled the case Saturday by paying Mr. Porter $20, so that his rewards amount to $40.

Lowering Water Boxes to the Curb Line.

Said to Be Heirs to a Very Large Estate.

It is currently reported that Gabriel Case, of the town of Crawford, Silas H. Case, of Goshen, and other members of the family, of whom there are several living in this vicinity, have fallen heir to a very large estate in Ohio, by the death of an uncle. Rumor puts the value of the estate at several million dollars.

The Campbells May Recover.

There is a marked improvement in the condition of the Campbell brothers, who were shot near High Point, and who are now in the Port Jervis hospital. Although the case of one of them was considered hopeless, it is now believed that both will recover.

HONORING THE DEAD.

Odd Fellows' Memorial Services in Hillside Cemetery.

GRAVES OF ODD FELLOWS DECORATED

Interesting and Appropriate Exercises Listened to by Many People—Rev. W. H. Morton's Fine and Timely Address.

Middletown Lodge, No. 112, I. O. O. F., held memorial services at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, which were attended by a large concourse of people. A large supply of flowers had been received early Sunday morning and a committee consisting of D. A. Taylor, John A. Ketcham, Chas. H. Sharpe, Fred Pursells and Joshua Hirst placed them upon the graves of Odd Fellows in Hillside Cemetery. Sixty-six graves were thus remembered.

About four score of members of the order, including members of Luther Lodge, met at Odd Fellows' Hall at 2:30 and at 3 o'clock proceeded in a body to the cemetery, where a platform and seats had been arranged for the exercises.

E. B. Quick, chairman of the general committee, presided and opened the programme by introducing Rev. J. N. Emery, who led in prayer. Music followed by the North Street Congregational Church choir and then Rev. W. H. Morton, pastor of the North Street Congregational Church, the speaker of the day, was introduced.

Rev. Mr. Morton's address was appropriate to the occasion and was full of sound truths and instruction. He referred especially to the brotherhood of man as exemplified in the Odd Fellows' organization.

After another musical number a selection from the Odd Fellows' ritual was read by Noble Grand Duncan Ross, Oscar Murray acted as chaplain in the absence of C. H. Brown, who was confined to his home through illness.

The general committee in charge of the day was composed of E. B. Quick, D. A. Taylor, Robert Lawrence, J. J. Wood and Oscar Murray.

ADDIE BARROW'S DEFENSE.

Her Lawyer Will Try to Prove Her Innocent—Big Check from a Mysterious Friend of the Prisoner.

William F. Howe, counsel for Mrs. Addie M. Barrow, one of the kidnappers of Marion Clarke, announced, Saturday, that he had received a check for over $3,000 from a friend of the unfortunate woman, whose identity he was not at liberty to reveal. The only information he will give on the subject is that the money came from a person living in the State, but not in New York city.

Mr. Howe said that he will use the money in having Mrs. Barrow examined by eminent alienists and experts to have no difficulty in proving that she is insane. He says that he will prove that insanity has existed in the woman's family for several generations and that since she lost her own child, two years ago, she has been insane on the subject of children and could not see a baby in its mother's arms or in a baby carriage without wanting to take it.

Mr. Howe will ask for a postponement of Mrs. Barrow's trial for two weeks in order to enable him to prepare for her defense on the lines above indicated. District Attorney Gardner says that such application will be stoutly opposed. Bella Anderson or "Larrie Jones," who will be used as a witness against Mrs. Barrow, is still in the Tombs and will not be taken to prison until after she has testified.

The World published, Sunday, a signed article by Mrs. Barrow, in which in a rambling and none too coherent way she told the story of her life, of her love for Barrow and the hard struggle they had to make ends meet after their marriage. In the article she makes reference to her love for children and of the joy it gave her to watch the development of their minds.

The concluding words of the article are: "My mind lacks clearness and my pen has lost its usual facility in tracing the impressions of my mind on paper. The only laid, coherent thought is 'I could not have committed a crime.' 'If I am permitted a future of air and liberty and sunshine I shall be heard of no more in the Tombs or the criminal courts.'"

WANTS TO HONOR DEWEY.

Newburgh Asks That He and the Olympia May Come Up the Hudson.

The Common Council of Newburgh Friday evening resolved unanimously to ask the Navy Department to run the Olympia up the Hudson to Newburgh on her arrival from Manila and after the New York celebration, the hospitality of the city to be extended to the Admiral.

Saturday the City Clerk received a reply from Secretary Long in which he says that the department is unable at this time to make any promises on behalf of the Olympia or for Admiral Dewey. "His reply," says the Secretary, "to the United States is still some three months distant, and it is now impossible to foresee what the claims of service may be at that time upon the Olympia and upon the Admiral himself."

Tale of Cannibalism from the Klondike.

FATE OF THREE GOLD SEEKERS.

Lost the Trail and All Perished—Two of Them Driven by Starvation to Eat Their Companion's Body—Thirdly Found in a Tent.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

CIRCLE CITY, May 29, via San Francisco.—A story of possible cannibalism and death on the Yukon trail has just reached here. Three men, who left Dahl River, Dec. 5th, for Kintown, were not heard of again and were supposed to have been lost. Nothing was heard of them until the steamer Ridout, which arrived to-day, brought a terrible tale of suffering and horror.

The men were Michael Daly, Victor Edward and M. Provost, of New England. They had lost the trail and were wood fasted to starvation. Daly's body was found, partly eaten, on a stove in a tent just as it was left by the other men. They were found dead five miles away.

The men doubtless were driven by hunger to the awful extremity of cannibalism. Four hundred dollars were found on the bodies.

WEN'S WORST ENEMIES.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Terrible Task on Warships.

That a man's worst enemies are sometimes "they of his own house" and apt illustration in the severe conditions which surround, in their own vessels, the gallant defenders of our flag in southern seas. With the flood of heat poured down by a scorching sun, converting the steel clad decks into sizzling grids and the armored turrets into veritable bake-ovens, with the thermometer ranging from 135 to 205 degrees in the fire rooms, where the metal walls, the doors and fittings, the ladders and tools become too hot to touch, it is no wonder that rough, rugged, stalwart men—who would stand in a fair fight until killed in their tracks—are unmanned by the cruel ordeal that they cry out in the frenzy of approaching madness.

There are many other agencies at work destroying the strength and stamina not only of our sailors but of men and women in every walk of life. The intense earnestness with which people apply themselves to the problems before them leads to overwork, loss of sleep and rest and improper or insufficient food. The nerve forces are deranged, the energy is wasted, and the vitality is destroyed. There is a remedy for overworked nerves and flagging energies. It is Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, a wonderful brain and nerve medicine which is the result of many years of arduous study and scientific research. Read what Mr. Mark Harrison, of Syracuse, N. Y., says about it: "About two years ago I was troubled with nervousness, sleeplessness and a general run down feeling caused by overwork. I tried all the doctors in the city but could get no relief. Someone told me of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and I bought a bottle and tried it. I was surprised at the results and continued its use for some weeks. I am glad to say that my health is completely restored."

Dr. Miles' Nervine can help you after your physicians have failed, because it goes to the foundation of your trouble and gives you increased strength and restorative power with which to combat your disease. It soothes and quiets the irritated nerves and gives the stomach and blood-making glands power to produce the healthy blood which drives out all impurities, waste products and disease germs, and builds up healthy muscles, solid muscular flesh and nerve energy.

All druggists are authorized to sell Dr. Miles' Nervine on a guarantee that first bottle will benefit or money will be refunded. Be sure and get Dr. Miles' Nervine. Write for free booklet on heart and nerves. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Preached to the Graduating Class by Rev. David Winters.

Rev. David Winters, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, preached the annual baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Middletown High school, Sunday morning. The class, without the girls adopted by the class of '38, met at the Board of Education rooms and went to the church in a body accompanied by the members of the Board of Education and the faculty of the High School. Seats were reserved for them in the centre of the church.
Rev. Mr. Winters took for his text part of the sixteenth verse of the fourth chapter of First Timothy: "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them, that thou mayest win them, to whom thou art ministering." His discourse was in the form of a familiar chat to the class and they listened intently to the good advice. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and a fine musical programme was given. There was a very large attendance, the edifice being filled.
